12186. A DELICATELY CARVED OAK CHIMNEYPICE WITH OVERMANTLE IN THE BAROQUE MANNER. The overmantle richly carved from the solid with the scrolled top pediment centred by a palmette and flanked by great laurel branches supporting three flat plinths. Prettily draped around the central enamelled clockface are Forget-Me-Nots and ribbons, the shelf supported on scrolled end-brackets, flanking the olive branch, carved frieze detail, which is centred by a large cartouche carved with a 'D'. French, Napoleon III era, 19th century.
